

■ A WORD FROM THE EDITORIAL

Philologia is a peer-reviewed academic journal whose primary objective is to promote and advance research in the humanities. The journal comes out annually in electronic edition.

Philologia publishes articles, critical essays, book reviews, interviews, conference reports grouped into the following sections: Linguistics, Applied Linguistics, Literary Studies, Cultural Studies, Translation Studies, Scientific Interviews, Conference Reports and Book Reviews. All previous issues are available at: www.philologia.org.rs. The journal may also be found in doiFil, the Repository of Digital Object Identifiers (DOIs) of the Faculty of Philology serial publications.

This year's issue of Philologia brings seven articles providing innovative perspectives in the fields of linguistics and literary studies. We hope you will find the papers stimulating and inspirational. The Editorial Board is endlessly obliged to the Reviewing and Advisory Council which includes Serbian and international reviewers. The significance of their role can be better understood when taking into consideration the fact that only 30% of all papers sent to the Editorial Board pass through the fine sieve of their careful reading and evaluation. Together with reviewers, the Editorial Board keeps implementing strict criteria when selecting papers for publication. This is our contribution to raising the quality of science and research. We are also very much grateful to our colleagues who sent the papers to have them reviewed. Without their trust in the work of Editorial Board and Advisory Council, it would have been impossible to have this journal published. Happy reading!
