

■ A WORD FROM THE EDITORS

Philologia is a peer-reviewed academic journal whose primary objective is to promote and advance research in the humanities. The journal comes out annually.

Philologia publishes original articles, critical essays, book reviews, interviews, conference reports grouped into the following sections: Linguistics, Applied Linguistics, Literary Studies, Cultural Studies, Translatology, Scientific Interviews, (Conference) Reports and Book Reviews. The Philologia journal is an Open Access journal. All previous issues are available at: www.philologia.org.rs. The journal is indexed in the following databases: DOAJ, EBSCO, ERIH PLUS and MLA Bibliography.

This year's issue of Philologia brings eleven articles providing innovative perspectives in the fields of linguistics, as well as literary and cultural studies. We hope you will find the papers thought-provoking. The Editorial Board is endlessly obliged to the Reviewing and Advisory Council which includes Serbian and international reviewers. Together with reviewers, the Editorial Board keeps implementing strict criteria when selecting papers for publication. This is our contribution to raising the quality of science and research. We are also very much grateful to our colleagues who sent the papers to have them reviewed. Without their trust in the work of Editorial Board and Advisory Council, it would have been impossible to have this journal published.
